

ANNEX C (Hohenfels Air Force Range Rules of Engagement and Procedures) to CMTC A2C2 SOP

1. Combat Maneuver Training Center/Hohenfels Training Area Range Information:

a. EDR-137, Hohenfels Training Area (HTA), is a major Army training area located in the southern part of Germany north of the A3 between Nurnberg and Regensburg. EDR-137 is restricted airspace from the surface to 7,500 ft MSL. The airspace is waiverable to 18,000 ft MSL.

b. HTA is primarily a maneuver training area and has no impact area. Expenditure of live or practice ordnance is prohibited. Chaff and flares are authorized inside the maneuver range boundaries.

c. Lightning and Bullseye are the Range Control Officers (RCO) at HTA range for fixed wing missions.

d. CAS procedures in ATP-27B and AAFCEM 80-2 apply.

e. A threat generator for EW training is available at HTA. Call Bullseye, 466-2328 NLT one working day in advance to request the threat generator.

f. Grafenwoehr Training Area, North of EDR-137 is a high-density traffic area. Use caution for VFR/IFR helicopters, fighters, gliders, and other civil or military aircraft. The majority of the traffic operates below 2,000 ft AGL.

g. General Range Restrictions:

(1) Do not enter EDR-137 without clearance from Lightning or Bullseye on (UHF) 240.5 (primary) or 284.1 (secondary). If no contact, call Hohenfels Tower on (VHF) 141.95 or (UHF) 341.7.

(2) Minimum weather- 1,500 ft/2.7 NM, 500M/5,000M.

(3) Minimum altitude:

(a) Day- 250 ft AGL /100ft on final, under positive FAC control.

(b) Night- 1,000 ft AGL. Times as defined by AAFCENT Low Fly Handbook.

(4) Maneuver Range Boundary:

(a) Schmidmuhlen, QV125615.

(b) South along Vils river to Rohrbach, QV141525.

(c) West along road to QV029555.
